

Class of 2003:

Amanda McNeely Langston:

Amanda, HHS Class of 2003, was born and raised here in Hamlin. She is the daughter of Raenell Wilson McNeely, HHS Class of 1981, and the late Clay McNeely. Following her graduation from high school, she attended Texas Tech University where she earned a bachelor's degree. Amanda married her high school sweetheart, Brandon Langston, HHS Class of 2002, and began her career as a math educator in Alpine, TX. The couple have been blessed with three children: Landrie, age 8; Emerie, age 7; and Camden, age 2. Amanda may be our very first Coming Home Queen nominee whose husband serves as the head football coach of the Piper's Homecoming opposing team, the Munday Moguls.
