

Class of 1963:

Randy Brown:

Randy is the son of the late Cecil and Minnie “Toad” Brown. While in high school, he played and participated in football all four years, basketball his freshman and sophomore years, track from grades 9 – 11, and golf all four years. During this time, the Hamlin golf team captured the district championship all four years, going to the State tournament his junior year. Randy also participated in F.F.A. all four years, and he was named “Football Hero” his senior year. He was married for forty-two years to the “love of his life,” the late Becky Petty Brown. They made their home here in Hamlin where she served as an educator for thirty-five years in the Hamlin public school system. To their marriage, they were blessed with a daughter, Holly, who resides here in Hamlin with her husband, Rick Collins. For the last thirty years, Randy has been the half-owner and operator of M & B Oilfield Construction, Inc. Randy now resides on his ranch south of Sweetwater.
